Viticulture

Produced by Rocca dei Forti, an Italian institution since 1950, this tradition lives on in the heart of every one of its sparkling wines. Like every authentic emotion, a great story is born, grows and develops only thanks to the passion and the will of the winemaker to achieve new peaks of excellence.

Winemaking

Made with a traditional process which respects the ripening times of the grapes required to making sparkling wines, then wait for the right alcohol content and values in terms of aroma, colour and appearance before bottling.
